

The NAB is out of line in seeking to diminish the usefulness of satellite radio. It provides quality programming and clarity that AM and FM stations cannot match. Do not give in to the special intrests who would rather legislate than compete for listners over the public airwaves.